ABOUT HINES WARD

Hines Ward's time in the football spotlight began at Georgia, where his weekly standout performances earned him First-Team All SEC honors in his senior season. He was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 3rd round of the 1998 NFL Draft. Over his time with the team Hines won two Super Bowls, Super Bowl MVP, four Pro Bowl invitations, and three team MVP titles, which earned him a spot on the Steelers All-Time Team. Since his retirement, he has opened a restaurant, joined the CNN team as a studio analyst, serves as an executive in the Alliance of American Football, and was named the head coach of the San Antonio XFL team.
